WHIG NOMINATION

FOR CONGRESS

ISRAEL WASHBURN, Jr.

Agricultural Implements.

Vast improvements have been made within a few years in the variety and the excellence of agricultural implements, and in many of these improvements, Maine has taken a part, as, particularly, in the case of sythes by Mr. Dunn, at his large establishment on the Kennebec, in the case of Winowing Machines, by Mr. Bean, in hay rakes and sythe snaiths, in ploughs, and recently we noticed at Dover, in hoes, hay and manure forks.

We made a visit to the well established and finely arranged factory of Messrs. Crocker, Paul & Co. a few days since. It is a complete hoe-shop industry, and is furnished with all the necessary machinery, and conducted with reference to the division of labor, to secure the largest product for the least consumption of time and materials. By devoting attention to one thing, and by the exercise of large mechanical, genius, and personally operating the factory themselves, for they are intelligent, industrious, far-seeing, shirt sleeve men, themselves, and equally at home about their work, or in making large contracts, they have brought the implements they manufacture, very nearly to, the point of mechanical perfection. Their hoes, hay forks and manure forks are light, flexible, work easily, are of graceful form and fine finish, and prove very durable. They make use of the finest and best materials that can be found, and this, in the end, proves to be altogether the best policy, as their business is constantly increasing. They have disposed in the market this spring of work made since last November, twelve thousand hoes, eight thousand hay forks, and four thousand manure forks. These have all been made of cast steel and finely polished, and put up in very neat style, and can successfully compete with any articles offered from any quarter.

The operations of this factory give employment to about twenty families, and afford them a good living and something more. It is unpretentious, and does not make a great show.—This establishment may be taken as an illustration of what Maine might do, and ought to do, in the way of manufacturing, instead of being dependent, as she now is, in a great degree upon other States for manufactured articles. Why may not greater encouragement be given for diversifying labor in Maine. There is water power and favorable locations, and abundant raw material, and men and women, girls and boys enough who leave Maine, if suitably encouraged who would remain at home and help forward the growth and wealth and general prosperity of the State.

The prejudice against manufacturing has operated like a blighting frost upon the energies of Maine. It is time for this prejudice to give way. It was invoked by political tricksters for the purpose of promoting their political interests by getting up an issue, out of which to make personal capital. It has already cost the State a vast sum, and its abandonment will give a new spring to business and greatly promote the general prosperity. What is done by the factory we have mentioned, in keeping up the life, industry and energy of the beautiful village of Dover and Foxcroft, may be done in many other places by mechanical and business enterprises in other departments, and thus Maine do her part towards manufacturing, at least, for her own consumption.

Steamboat Collision and Loss of Life on the Saint John.

We learn from the New Brunswicker that on the 21st inst. the steamer Anna Augusta was run into at the foot of Long Reach by the steam tug Transit both boats at full speed. The Transit struck the other boat before the paddle box, and carried away all before her until brought up by the main shaft of the Anna Augusta, which was bent and thrown out of place, deranging the whole of the machinery. The boiler of the Anna Augusta is supposed to have been torn open by the collision and derangement, for the boiling water and steam almost instantly escaped, and badly scalded nine persons among the deck-hands and forward passengers. These were immediately taken to Indian Town by the Transit, and there received medical relief. A fireman named Corrigan and a deck hand named Hugh Cockrane died from their injuries. The Crown Officers are determined to make a thorough investigation as to the cause of this disaster, and if guilt is at the bottom to have it fully punished.

☞ A great interest is now felt in Portland in favor of getting up their portion of the amount to secure the immediate construction of the Cumberland and Oxford Canal.

☞ We mentioned very briefly yesterday, the fact that three persons were killed at a railroad crossing in Cambridge on Saturday last.—It appears that the Engineer discovered a carriage on the track, and immediately blew the whistle, rung the bell, and reversed the engine. The train struck the carriage, breaking it into atoms, and killing the three persons named yesterday. One of the ladies in the carriage, Mrs. Sawyer of Charlestown, had an infant in her arms at the time of the collision, and singularly enough, was retained in her distance, while she was carried a distance of upwards of eighty rods on the front of the engine, before the powerful instrument of destruction could be stopped. When picked up, Mrs. Sawyer was senseless, her skull being fractured, and a portion of the brain protruding therefrom. The infant to whom she had so fondly clung in such a terrible moment, escaped without hurt.

Freedom Meeting in Philadelphia.—An enthusiastic meeting of the friends of Mr. Fillmore was held in Philadelphia on Saturday evening. Speeches were made by Col. John Swift, Mr. Gebhard, Mr. Buckley and Mr. Erastus Brooks. Eleven strong resolutions were adopted. The following embodies the sentiment of the meeting:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, no man comes up more completely to our standard of qualification than the present enlightened and virtuous President of the United States, Millard Fillmore, who has enjoyed the opportunity of exhibiting qualities as for his station such as have commanded the approbation and won the regard, not only of the great party of which he is the head, but of all true lovers of the dignity, honor and interest of the country.

☞ Mr. J. B. Estrope has addressed a letter to the New York Express explaining that the name of Gilbert, as derived from the Latin word signifies freeman, and that it was originally suggested as a name for the country in Africa which now occupies it by General Robert Goodloe Harper of Baltimore.

☞ The fruit trees now in blossom make a beautiful appearance. The earth is now very dry, and vegetation is making but feeble progress. Farmers however, have been favored to get in their seeds much better than usual, and a very few days should soon, crown the prospects of the farming interest will be fine.

☞ The perpetual bell ringer is to be anchored off Cape Hatteras to warn mariners approaching those dangers in foggy times or indeed at all times, for the vessel is so constructed, and the bell so hung, that the motion of the waves will cause it constantly to ring.

☞ The Whig State Convention will assemble at Portland on the third day of June, and it is hoped that every town particularly in this portion of Maine, will be fully represented.

☞ The ship of the city of Portland in and the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railroad has been sold in New York at 11 per cent advance.

☞ We give our thanks to Capt. & Co's Express for papers received yesterday in advance of the Mail.

☞ The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon was caused by fire which is a loss of hay and rubbish in rear of the store of R. H. Hardy. It was soon extinguished by the Fire Department.

☞ The weather is dry and cold. The first rose in the woods like cold summer.

☞ We tender our thanks to Hon. J. W. Bradbury, for recent favors.

☞ A severe shock of an earthquake was felt in Apalachicola on the 14th instant.

New York, May 24.

A letter from Washington dated 23d inst., says that Mr. Webster's presence may be required soon, on account of the state of our relations with Mexico. Troops immediately intercepted in the Tehuantepec Co. are not at all discouraged as to its ultimate prosecution. It is believed that the matter can be settled between this government and that of Mexico by the payment of the claims accruing under the 11th article of the treaty of peace or by the payment of a bonus of one or two millions. It is not thought for a moment that the government of Great Britain have interfered in the affair.

Kanzman Spirits, and Spiritual Manifestations.—Reply to Dr. Pond.

We have received from Mr. Bugbee a handsomely printed pamphlet containing Dr. Pond's discourse on the subject of Familiar Spirits, and a reply to the same by a believer in spiritual manifestations. It was certainly fair to publish at length and in good shape, the discourse of Dr. Pond, and the reply is well written and clear, internal evidence of strength on the part of the author. We are by no means prepared to adopt the views of either of these writers, regarding the subject of what are called Spiritual Manifestations, and our only object at present is, to call attention to the pamphlet, discussing the subject, and to say that those interested can find copies at Mr. Bugbee's Bookstore.

Howard Athenæum Company.—This company from Boston, commenced a series of their popular entertainments at the City Hall on Monday evening last. The Hall was full and fashionable, and the performers realized the expectations of all present, giving the most excellent satisfaction, and receiving flattering marks of applause from the audience. The Comedy of Charles the Second, was performed to the life, every character being neatly and appropriately dressed. And the curtain fell amidst most enthusiastic approbation. The dancing by Miss Western was also well received, there being nothing to offend the most fastidious taste. The farce of the "Irish Tutor," introduced the peculiarities of the company, Mr. Brown, as Dr. O'Toole, and he made a decided hit; he played Cousin Joe, in the afterpiece of the Rough Diamond admirably, and kept the house in a roar of laughter. Mrs. Roglia, who sustained the character of Mary Copp in Charles the Second, and Margery in the Rough Diamond, made a decided hit, exhibiting great histrionic talent, and a thorough knowledge of her profession. She is a lady of talent, judgment and good taste. She will be a great favorite here. We see by the bill this evening that a new farce is to be given, together with a laughable comedy, and that a new candidate for public favor, the dramatic writer, Miss Kate Western, who, with one of the ladies in the company, will appear in the character of Sally Scrip, in the farce of "Sweethearts and Wives," and in the comedy of "Rough and Ready," she will appear in the character of Mrs. Caudle, from that celebrated work, "Curtain Lectures."

ARRIVAL OF THE

CAMBRIA

AT HALIFAX.

Halifax, Telegraph Office, May 26, 11 A. M.

The Cambria has just arrived. She left Liverpool at 4½ o'clock P. M., with fifty-two passengers.

The Arctic arrived Wednesday at 4 A. M., having been detained some hours by fog and wait of water.

The news is interesting but not important.

The French fetes passed off brilliantly without any attempt at Empire.

In Parliament the motion to abolish paper duty and newspaper stamp was voted down.—Malt still disturbed.

Indian Mail arrived.

Cotton active, at quotations or a shade advance. Corn dull. Money abundant.

The week's sales of Cotton is 111,000 bales, of which 64,730 Uplan American.

ENGLAND.

The proceedings in Parliament during the week have been of considerable interest. A motion was brought forward in the House of Commons by Mr Spooner, on Tuesday for a Committee to inquire into the system of education pursued at the Roman Catholic College at Maynooth. The motion was met by an amendment that the House should resolve itself into a committee to consider a bill to repeal the Maynooth endowment, and all other grants in aid of religious institutions. A lengthened debate ensued which brought out the whole force of the House, and further consideration of the question was adjourned till Tuesday next. On Wednesday the debate was resumed on Mr. Milner Gibson's resolutions of 22d inst., to abolish the duties of paper together with the stamp on newspapers, and the tax on advertisements.—Most of the prominent members took part, eventually the resolutions were voted on as follows: Majority against abolishing the paper duties 88; against abolishing the newspaper stamp 99; against abolition of the advertising duty 66. The debate elicited several statements of interest to the reading public, among others that government intends to prosecute monthly periodicals not published on newspaper stamps.

The militia bill still drags its slow length along in committee.

Thursday being the anniversary of the Queen's birth day there was no House.

On Friday the House went into committee on the militia bill. It was stated that government intend sending a military force to Australia, and the colony to pay expenses.

The woolen manufacturers of England are alarmed at the prospect of a deficiency in the supplies of Australian wool, caused by the flight of the Shepherds to the gold mines. A deputation has been appointed to draw the attention of government to the subject.

Two destructive accidents has happened in the Welsh Collieries. The first was an explosion of fire damp by which eighty persons perished. The other was the flooding of a pit by which twenty eight were drowned.

The Crystal Palace is definitely bought for £70,000, by the Directors of the Brighton railway, who intend by the aid of a Joint Stock Company, to re-erect it at Sydenham and open it as an exotic garden, by the first of May next.

Capt. Howard of the ship Renovorin, which brought news of the two wrecks seen on the ice, and surmised to be Franklin's ships, has made a deposition concerning them, before the authorities of Venice. This statement throws no additional light on the subject. He thinks they were whalers.

The Brazilian Mail Steamer with dates to the middle of April, arrived at South Hampton on Friday. She has £30,000 in specie and diamonds valued at £11,000.

Rumors that Lord Gingall will supercede Earl Dalhousie, as Governor-General of India.

The activity in the cotton market has continued undiminished, this being the fourth week in which the trade have taken considerably beyond the actual consumption. The transactions of the week are announced in the cotton circulars at 111,000 bales and the market has been well supplied with American descriptions. Middling 5 3-8d. Fair Mobile 5 5-8d. Fair Uplands 5¾d.

American flour active at full prices, holders steadily refusing to lower their prices. The arrivals from any source during the week have been light—23,284 bbls. of flour from the United States forming the principal feature. Market nearly bare of Yellow Corn. Prices unaltered. American white more plentiful, and the turn lower.

FREIGHTS.

In consequence of the excess of tonnage brought in by the westerly winds, charters can be made at about half the prices of last month. Freights to New York 10s to 11s for iron; to Boston 15s to 17s 6d; to Philadelphia, 10s. Packets are enabled to fill up with passengers at £3 to New York.

MONEY MARKET.

Money continues very abundant, and discounts easy. Bullion continues to increase in the Bank of England, and is above £20,000,000 Sterling. Consols 99 5-8 to 99 3-4.

Parisian Bourse heavy without decline.

United States stocks continue in good demand at firm prices.

FRANCE.

The long anticipated 10th of May passed over with the greatest calm and without the slightest disturbance. The fete was purely military. Sixty thousand troops of all arms were drawn up in the Champs de Mars, and not many short of half a million of citizens were assembled in the immediate vicinity. Above the position of the throne of Louis Napoleon was erected a temporary edifice in the form of a Roman Eagle with extended wings, and the whole of the military bands were posted in front of it. At the moment when the President arrived on the ground, the whole of the troops presented arms, and the bands struck up the air of "Partant pour la Syrie," which was composed by Queen Hortense, mother of the President. The President then proceeded to review the troops, after which presentations of Standards surmounted by the Imperial Eagles was made to the Colonels of the various regiments. He subsequently addressed them in a speech, very adroitly put together, in which he says:—"The Roman Eagle adopted by the Emperor Napoleon was the most striking emblem of the regeneration and grandeur of France. It disappeared with our misfortunes; it ought to return, when France, recovered from her defeats and distress, of herself deems no longer to repudiate her own glory.

Resume, then, soldiers, these Eagles not as menace against foreigners, but as the symbol of our independence; as the souvenirs of a heroic epoch and as the mark of each regiment's nobility, and swear to die, if need be, in defence of those emblems, that have so often led our fathers to victory." The address was immediately given forward throughout the city.

The clergy headed by the Arch Bishop of Paris, mustered to the number of eight hundred, assumed gorgeous attire, formed in the field and bestowed their blessings on the standards. The troops then defiled before the President, and the ceremony concluded. About two thousand crosses and medals were distributed. The President on the whole was well received. The Infantry in general cried Vive Napoleon, the Cavalry, Vive Le Empereure. On the other hand the operatives of the Faubourgh St. Antoyne notified their employers that they would work during the day instead of being at the fete. Festivities were continued in-doors on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. On Tuesday night a grand ball in the Tuileries was attended by 15,000 persons. On Wednesday a banquet was given to 800 Generals and Inferior officers and on Thursday dinner to 2000 of the non-commissioned officers of the line.

The ministry of the interior has written to Mirage exempting him from taking the oath of allegiance, to the President.

Gen. Changarnier also refuses to take the oaths. Writing from Malines Changarnier says, Louis Napoleon has frequently attempted to make me swerve from the straight line which I have traced for myself and to induce me to lend myself to his sinister designs. He has many times, very many times, offered and caused to be offered to me not only the rank of Marshal which I should have filled in the eyes of France without being thought to degrade it, but another dignity which has never been revived since the fall of the Empire. He proposed to endow it with enormous pecuniary advantages, but which, thanks to the obscurity of my mode of life I accepted no favor to myself in vain. He refused. The oath required by the perjurer who intends his attempts to corrupt me, I refuse. Signed, Changarnier.

It is said that the next modification of the French funds will be the conversion of the perpetual rents into life annuities.

Louis Napoleon offers a premium of 5000 francs for the best design for a model lodging house for artizans.

A letter issued by the Count de Chambord calling on the legitimists to refuse the oath of allegiance, attracts much attention.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN EUROPE.

Advices from Prussia and Austria are mainly occupied with the movements of the Emperor of Russia now visiting in Vienna. Prince Windleschgraze and the Ban have arrived in the Capital and the Duc of Bordeaux is expected, hence it is thought that the Emperor's visit is more on business than pleasure.

The Austrian Lloyds publishes a list of sentences against the Hungarians implicated in the late war. The names of 20 are now in America or elsewhere are to be publicly affixed in the gallows. Among the persons thus sentenced are Count Alex Teleky and Polansky.

Kossuth's relatives were at Dresden on the 5th inst. on their way to Hermsan.

Letters dates are to the 10th inst. Madrid to the 10th.—They contain nothing worth telegraphing. A decree of the Grand Duke of Tuscany abolishes the Constitution and resumes matters as they were before 1848.

An Englishman named Murray, is sentenced to death in Rome for associating with political assassins. No other Italian news.

AUSTRALIA.

An arrival from Port Phillip brings eleven days later to Jan. 20th, from the Victoria Gold Fields. The yield of precious metal was unchecked. Labor commanded very high rates. Reapers 25s. per day. Gold was selling at £3 16s. to £3 per ounce.

INDIA AND CHINA.

Telegrams from Trieste anticipate the Indian mail with Calcutta dates to April 27th, from Bombay April 17th, and China March 23d.

The expedition against Burmah had sailed to attack Rangoon. There were new outbreaks on the North frontier of India.

At Bombay money was in demand. Both imports and exports calm.

Freights to London and Liverpool £3 10s. per ton.

At Calcutta money is abundant.

Generals Butler and Lane withdrawn.

Gens. Butler and Lane have withdrawn from the Presidential contest.

CONGRESS.

Washington, 24.

In the Senate—The doors were not opened till half-past 2, when the deficiency bill was taken up. Mr. Hunter offered an amendment appropriating $90,000 for deficiencies in the expenses of the Supreme, Circuit and District Courts of the United States, including the pay of witnesses, juries, and the safe-keeping of prisoners.

Mr. Hale wished to know how much of this money was to be spent on account of the turbulency and disturbances arising out of the Fugitive Slave Law in several of the Northern States, and the excitement in Louisiana emanating from the Cuban invasion.

Mr. Hunter stated the expenses were on account of the Judiciary generally, and he detailed the reasons for appropriation.

Mr. Hale said he could show that three extra deputies rose out of the proceedings attending the Fugitive Slave Law, and the difficulty of summoning witnesses.

Mr. Hunter's amendment was agreed to. Other amendments were also acted upon, when the Senate adjourned.

In the House—

Mr. Hall, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported back, with amendments, the bill granting ten million acres of land to the States for the benefit of indigent insane. One of the amendments proposes to distribute the land in the ratio of 20,000 acres for each representative in Congress. The consideration of the subject was postponed for two weeks—yeas 116, nays 49.

Much of the time was occupied in the consideration of the other bills. One of which, authorizing Bolts who have received certificates for service in the war of 1812, to enter good land in lieu of the worthless tracts they have selected, was referred to the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union.

The House then went into committee, and took up the bill making appropriation for the payment of invalid pensions for the next fiscal year.

Mr. Houston addressed a fair and the Navy pension bill, passed the day. It would require but little time. The items were in strict accordance with the law and estimate of the debts. He appealed to gentlemen not to discuss extraneous matters on these measures, but wait for the appropriation bills.

Mr. Bayley (Va., said he wanted to make a political speech. It was not often that he troubled the House in that way.

On motion of Mr. Stewart the committee rose, when the gentleman proposed to limit the debate to five minutes.

Mr. Bayley moved two hours, which, after much squabbling, was agreed to, and the House went again into Committee.

Mr. Washburn delivered an hour's speech against making the Compromise measures a finality and a party test, and in conclusion said: "The policy and duty of the Whig party was to come together with no sectional griefs, and take up for their standard bearer the old and tried chief, whose services and sacrifices are the best pledges for his fitness for the office. With such a candidate, standing in a position where they can unite on the old and sufficient platform of the Whig party, concord and confidence will be restored to the country."

Mr. Bayley of Va., obtained the floor, when the committee rose.

Mr. Harris of Tenn. asked leave to offer a resolution fixing the adjournment of Congress for the first Monday in August. Objections were made. Pending a motion for the suspension of the rules the House adjourned.

Washington, May 25.

Senate.—Messrs. Wade, Cass, Brodhead, Sumner, Bright and Davis, presented memorials asking for passage of the homestead bill.

Mr. Hale offered a resolution, which was laid over, calling upon the navy department for information relative to the compilation of the Nautical Almanac.

House.—Mr. Dimmer asked but did not receive consent to offer a joint resolution that if at the time of the liberation of the Irish exiles, a national ship be in the neighborhood of Australia, the President be requested to cause it to proffer them a passage free to this country.

Various reports were made from Committees.

Mr. Hall, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill giving the assent of Congress to Missouri to impose a tax on all lands hereafter sold in said State from and after the day of sale.

Much of the hard work of washing day is made easy to all those who use Boston Chemical Washing Powder, as say the many who use it. See advertisement.

COOKING STOVE

THE best Cook Stove ever introduced to this or any other people.

Having secured the sole agency of this very desirable Stove, I take great pleasure in offering it to my customers and the public. This Stove was invented expressly for this eastern market, by those experienced and expert Stove manufacturers, Messrs. Bates & Whittier, who know, and have appreciated the wants of this enlightened people. It is now offered to the public with the fullest confidence in its merits, and its superiority over every other Cooking apparatus ever introduced. Its conveniences for Boiling, Broiling, Frying, &c., are not surpassed, and its extensive and beautiful Oven for Baking and Roasting, will at once recommend itself to the Ladies. One very important feature is, it has very neat and smooth castings, and being manufactured in this city can at all times be repaired, if ever necessary, at a trifling expense, without subjecting one to wait for castings to be ordered from New York, Rhode Island, or elsewhere. Every Stove is warranted one year, and one not giving entire satisfaction may be returned and the money will be refunded after 30 days trial.

—ALSO—

A great variety of other patterns of cooking Stoves, such as the

Our State, Bay State, Empire State, Granite State, State of Maine, &c.,

All or any of which will be sold at extremely low prices.

Elevated Oven Stoves—Hampden 3 and 4 Boiler and two Oven—Boston two oven Stoves, Forrest Queen, &c., and that very useful pattern of Cooking Parlor Cook Stove, and in fact every variety of Stoves for Cooking or warming, will be found at the Tinning Store and Stove Rooms, No 18, 20, and 22 Main st.
